About AWCP!

The Association of Workers' Compensation Professionals (AWCP), with its headquarters in the Sacramento region, has been providing quality education to our members for 20 years. As a workers' compensation professional association, AWCP has taken pride in offering timely and relevant educational opportunities, including the renowned Annual Workers' Compensation Conference. Our goal is to establish, maintain, and promote a comprehensive curriculum of continuing education offerings; to plan and monitor activities using the association's strategic plan as a framework to enhance knowledge of the work comp industry.

The AWCP Board represents a large spectrum of workers' compensation professionals who are dedicated to providing educational programs and opportunities to Claims Examiners, Claims Managers, Attorneys, Nurses, Risk Managers, Service Providers, and Human Resources Managers.

The AWCP Board is bringing that same quality education to Southern California!

March's Featured Topic and Speakers!

“Catastrophic Claims & Death Benefits!”

This continuing education unit hour will outline the definition of the catastrophic claims, CSIMS factors, how to attempt to stop the claim from creeping along. We will also review the who, what, why and how much regarding death benefits, including a review of recent Timmons case.

Featured Speaker: Mitchell J. Kim, Esq.

Mr. Kim joined D'ANDRE LAW in their Orange County office in May 2017. Mr. Kim focuses on providing quality representation and service through aggressively handling claims, providing detailed analysis and recommendations, and responsively attending to his clients' needs in all aspects of claims litigation.

Mr. Kim began his career in workers' compensation defense as a hearing representative and lien specialist in October 2012. Following his admission to the California State Bar in May 2014, Mr. Kim focused his attention on handling case-in-chief matters. Mr. Kim has extensive experience in handling all aspects of workers' compensation claims. From the initial discovery and medical-legal process to resolution of claims and liens to arbitration, Mr. Kim has handled over 700 claims in the past five years.

During law school, Mr. Kim assisted attorneys at legal aid clinics in providing free legal assistance to low-income individuals. Mr. Kim also interned at a public policy organization to reform and shape employment law nationally.

Mr. Kim also sits on the Board of Directors of Beloved International, a non-profit organization he helped found in 2010 to provide domestic adoption for AIDS orphans in Kenya.

Professional Activities:

Mr. Kim has given lectures on a variety of workers' compensation topics and case law updates, including SB 863, utilization review and Independent Medical Review, resolution of liens, the SJDB voucher, and the Panel QME process.

One hour of CE credits for WCCPs, Claims Examiners, Attorneys MCLE and Legal Specialization in Workers' Compensation, Certified Case Managers and Nurses!
